DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment A filed 2/08/2002, supplemental amendment B filed on 3/06/2002, supplemental amendment C filed on 5/20/2002 are entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 6-11, 14-17, 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 18 contains limitation “ providing a drag type frictional force...mouse” which results in indefiniteness because it is not clear to the examiner how a structural intersection could provide a drag type frictional force: friction is typically involved an object in motion pertaining to a static structure. The examiner believes an interview is necessary to advance prosecution.

Claim 19 contains limitation “ a frictional force component...mouse pad” which results in indefiniteness because it is not clear to the examiner how a force component is claimed as a structural element: frictional force is typically involved due to an object in motion pertaining to a static structure. The examiner believes an interview is necessary to advance prosecution.
